building. In this instance, classrooms are locked down. In lockdown drills, students practice staying out of sight and blocking an intruder's access.

Counseling Options

Mrs. Scrima has been working on getting counselors to see students at Dorena School. If your child could benefit from counseling, please, contact the school. If Scrima is able to justify a significant need, we may be able to offer counseling services at Dorena School.

FAD

In January, Dorena will be starting Round II of Fun Afternoons at Dorena. We are looking for community members who are willing to work with a small group of students on an enrichment activity. We offer a big "Thank you!" to Stacey Atwell-Keister, Evelyn Doolittle, Olivia Scrima, and Peggy Cameron for volunteering their time and efforts to make FAD Round I a success. Leading an enrichment activity is a great way to get involved in students' lives and offer opportunities to them that they wouldn't normally be able to experience. Previous enrichment groups have included activities such as book club, decoration making, puppet making, music, dance, chess, basketball, jewelry making, and bible studies. We look forward to many of the returning leaders and other possible activities such as quilting. If you are interested in leading a FAD group, please, contact the office or send a note to school with your child.
