The Lions struggled even more so against North Marion. Of the 15 matches, Cottage Grove only came out victorious in three of them, one from a forfeit. Andrew Bordeaux managed to pin Damian Chavez in the first period, and Elijah Farrell finished by pinning Ramon Organiz in the second period.

Philomath proved to be less of a challenge for the Lions, who dealt with the Warriors 48-26. Cottage Grove won eight of the 14 match-ups, and all eight resulted in pins. Rolfe, Boitz, Chamberlain, Woertnik, the Bordeaux brothers and Farrell all won by pin. Farrell's pin came within the first 40 seconds, and Allen managed to pin Cody Chambers of Philomath in under 30 seconds.

Overall, 1-2 in a dual meet is not where the Lions would like to see themselves, and at the Phoenix Multi-Dual meet, they changed their fate and went 3-0 against North Valley, Phoenix and Rogue River.

The Lions started out lucky with two forfeits against Chance Ralston and Rolfe, but nonetheless they started off hot with a 12-4 major decision win from Boitz over North Valley's Christian Garfield.

Kripeerapan found redemption by pinning Haleigh Wagman in the first period. North Valley ultimately ended with six forfeits, giving the Lions an easy 64-16 win.

The dual against Phoenix was much closer and was a great Triumph for Cottage Grove. Boitz was able to pin Elijah Leonis in the first period after Phoenix started out ahead with a pin and a decision win. Allen then similarly pinned his opponent in the first period directly after Boitz.

However, Kripeerapan, Chamberlain and Woertnik all lost to their opponents: by pin, major decision, pin and pin, respectively.

It was Alan Bordeaux and Andrew Bordeaux that came out with two wins that helped the Lions get back into the dual. Alan won by major decision (10-2) over William Frazee, and Andrew pinned Garrett Truex in the second period. Stalder kept up the work by beating Justin Knight, who fell to an injury. A forfeit in the penultimate match up and a pin by Adam Lamb gave Cottage Grove the edge to win, 40-37.

Finally, the Lions took care of Rogue River with ease. Aside from the three forfeits, Cottage Grove won 10 out of the 11 match-ups with the only loss being by Woertnik, who lost by a 13-8 decision, a hard-fought match.

After struggling at home, the Lions managed to sweep their way through Phoenix on Saturday, beating all three opponents. Cottage Grove travels to Sisters on Thursday, Jan. 28 for a league dual, looking to continue their Sky-Em success.

SWIMMING

The 100-meter butterfly race was when things went awry. Dukes raced by himself against two other North Eugene swimmers. Dukes placed third, giving the Lions three points, and North Eugene took first and second, giving North Eugene a huge boost of 10 points.

Dukes was later outnumbered 3-1 again by North Eugene, this time on the 500-meter freestyle race. He blew the competition away with a time of 5:32.56 and a first-place finish, but with North Eugene's three participants getting second, third and fifth finishes (Junction City occasionally participating, placing fourth in this race), that gave them eight points to Dukes' six, the Highlanders were able to stretch their lead.

The Lions were occasionally outdone on even matchups, however. On the 266 freestyle relay, Burlson, Pifer, Clure and Chambers came second to North Eugene, finishing with a time of 2:50.14.

Chambers and Clure managed to snag first and fourth place respectively in the 100-meter backstroke, giving them eight points to North Eugene's seven, but by then, the lead seemed too great to be overcome.

The meet was finished with the 400-meter freestyle relay, where Dukes, Witt, Chambers and Burlson came in second with a time of 2:53.25; North Eugene finished in 2:47. The Lions lost 82-66 but were not discouraged by their performance.

"I feel really good about how they swam," Head Coach Tyson Pilling said. "It's just a bummer that we were occasionally a man or two short."
