RANKINGS

The Lions are one win away from tripling the amount of wins from last year and have done so by blowing out opponents as well as outlasting rivals in close overtime finishes. Kory Parent, one of the team's top scorers and performers, attributes their success to great chemistry. These players have now played basketball for a long time and are able to communicate well, allowing them to thrive in clutch situations. Could this be a year of extensive playoff appearances? Head Coach Donn Pollard has already been wildly successful in turning around his 5-19 team from last year. We'll just have to see.

For now, Cottage Grove sits behind Marshfield, the top ranked 4A team in the state, and one of the few teams to deliver a loss to the Lions, Philomath (a team that the Lions beat in a thrilling overtime game), and Seaside, who the Lions have yet to face and would only have the possibility of facing in the playoffs. Cottage Grove is closely chased by North Marion (a team that actually beat the Lions at the Les Schwab Tournament) at number five, and a Junction City team hungry for revenge after Cottage Grove won in overtime. The closest Sky-Em contender is Sisters (10-7), ranked 17. The Lions are undefeated in league play entering the second half (playing league members for the second time) and will look to continue their success on the court.
