three and two RBIs, respectively. But the important detail to take away is not in individual performance, but the quantity of batters getting on base. The last time Cottage Grove played Sutherlin, only four managed to get hits and the Lions finished with a batting average of .167 in their 3-0 victory. This recent performance has displayed outstanding improvement among the Lions and has perhaps answered any questions about the team's ability to get on base.

Regardless, the Lions have only one league loss to a team they no longer have to worry about, and recent trends suggest Cottage Grove holds the most realistic chance to take the Sky-Em. Cottage Grove hosts one more game against Sutherlin this week before moving on Junction City.

the use of conversion tables. A total score is accumulated for each individual's three performances.

The ages for competition are grouped as follows: seven and eight, nine and 10, 11 and 12, 13 and 14. Each age group will have the chance to compete at four levels of competition which includes the Team Championships at a Major League ballpark and the National Finals at the 2016 MLB All-Star Game.

The first and local level will be held at the Bohemia school ballpark on May 7 at 10 a.m.

The individual pitching, hitting and running champions, along with the all-around champion in each age and gender group at the local competition will be advance to the sectional level.

Registration is free and forms are available at the Sentinel or can be acquired through the Lions Club.

though Knutson warns of stiff competition in the 4A class.

"There are two guys from Henley who have already broken 15 seconds," he said, "but Coach Bridgens has been working hard with Michael on his hurdling technique.

Moving away from the track, one of the more notable performances came from the arm of Brad Geisler. Geisler took ninth in the shot put throw with a distance of 41 feet, 11 inches, and then he stood out in the discus.

While a senior from Nestucca seemed to control both the shot put and the discus, Geisler stood out by taking second in the discus.
