phenom Murray Bingham, who left his upperclassmen counterparts in the dust. Another impressive freshman finish was by Cottage Grove's Paesen Timm in seventh place with a time of 9:45.53.

The race of the day was the boys' high hurdles. For a while, Tharpe had been finding himself on top in many meets during the middle of the season. However, Friday's hurdlers were just as sharp as Tharpe. Henley holds two seniors that have previously broken 15 seconds. Seth Andres and Dylan Castle took first and second respectively with times of 15.03 and 15.08 seconds. Tharpe finished in fifth with 15.37 behind two runners from North Bend and Hidden Valley.

On the field events, Brad Geisler took fourth in shot put with 44 feet, 11.5 inches and fifth place in discus with 145 feet, five inches. Considering that both events had over 35 competitors, Geisler was definitely among the elite finalists of the day.

The long jump saw Jayden Tucker and Reily Boyce step up. Tucker finished in fourth with 20 feet, 5.5 inches, and Boyce finished in sixth with 19 feet, 10 inches. Boyce is not always a regular in the long jump event, but his sprinting ability has given him an edge in the long jump.

On the girls' side, Hannah Albrecht helped her team with a strong 100-meter dash performance, giving herself a time of 13.15 seconds and a third-place finish overall. The junior placed third again in the 200-meter dash with 27.4 seconds. With her recent performances, head coach Ricky Knutson says she seems to be in great shape for the upcoming important races.

Hudson Weybright and Breanna Wright didn't appear in the distance races, but Wright placed fifth in the 800-meter race in 2:25.47, and Weybright finished eighth with 2:27.24.

The invitational was the last meet before the district meet, which will also be held in Cottage Grove. And while the Lions didn't do as well as last week, that's not to say that there won't be improvements at districts.

For instance, Cottage Grove hosted three Sky-Em teams out of the 18 competing, and the boys beat all three by a solid margin. The girls only lost to Sisters but came out ahead of Sweet Home and Elmira. With other athletically deep schools competing this past weekend, Cottage Grove had trouble finding consistency in being in top positions. At districts, however, that should change.

Scott in third. Joe Maricle crossed the line fourth, while Mike Simmons from Cottage Grove was fifth. After the races, Scott did not go to the scales, so that bumped everyone a position and gave Eugene driver Eddy Mesejeji the official fifth-place finish.

K.C. Scott was the fast time of the night in time trials, and Joe Maricle won the Dot's Trophy Shop Trophy Dash. Heat race winners included Scott, Josh Corley and Mike Simmons.

Cottage Grove Speedway gets back underway with a double-header weekend. Things kick off on Friday, May 13 for the first $5 Fast Friday. Spectators that are 13 years or older get in for just $5 and 12 or younger are free. Racing will be starting a little bit later than normal and things are expected to get going at 7 p.m. Classes racing include the Clark Printing Extreme Sprints and the PHRA Dwarf Cars.

Then, on Saturday, May 14, CGS hosts Grad Night. All senior high school students that have a student body card get into the races for free. Classes racing on night two are the Clark Printing Extreme Sprints, Late Models, Quality RV Repair Hornets, and PHRA Dwarf Cars.
