More special culinary opportunities!

BMD Miner's Steak and Beans Dinner – Thursday, July 14, from 6-8 p.m.

Support the Festival and enjoy a classic miner's dinner that includes a 10-oz ribeye grilled to order with a side of beans deliciously made from a homemade secret recipe. The scrumptious cornbread is donated by the local Vintage Inn Restaurant. Served next to the Chuckwagon by the basketball court in Coiner Park. Cost: $15

BMD Ice Cream Social – Friday, July 15 from 4-8 p.m.

Since the late 1800s, the local Presbyterians have been serving up ice cream for special occasions each summer.

In 1959, they had their annual summer ice cream social coincide with the Bohemia Mining Days Festival. This year's social features homemade cakes, brownies and pies and a choice of ice cream flavor. The church is located on the corner of Adams Avenue and South Third Street. Suggested donation: Adults $3.50, Kids $2, or non-perishable food, baby food or diapers for Community Sharing. Proceeds benefit youth music program and Community Sharing. The BMD Express Train provides free service to the church between 2-6 p.m.

BMD Chuckwagon Breakfast – Saturday, July 16 from 7-10

a.m.

In the spirit of the brave souls of the Oregon Trail who were accustomed to chuck wagon fare, the BMD Board of Directors invites you enjoy your own chuck wagon breakfast on Saturday morning before the 10 a.m. Grand Miners Parade. The menu is scrambled eggs with side of sausage and biscuits with homemade gravy. Proceeds from the meal help to support festival operations. Served next to the Chuckwagon by the basketball court in Coiner Park. Cost: $6

BMD Chicken BBQ – Saturday, July 16 from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

For 30 years local Lutherans have served up a tasty barbeque chicken dinner during the Saturday of the festival. The menu is half BBQ chicken, baked beans, coleslaw, buttered roll, cookie and beverage. Cost: $8 per plate or $6.50 for chicken only. Proceeds from this year's fundraiser will go to the Trinity Lutheran Scholarship Fund and CG Christians as Family Advocates (CAFA). Plan to go early, as this popular BMD event often sells out of chicken before the planned 7 p.m. ending time. Trinity Lutheran Church is located on the corner of Quincy Avenue and South Sixth Street. The BMD Express Train provides free service to the church between Noon-5:30 p.m.
