

American Cancer Society Cancer Resource Network
No Matter Who You Are
WE CAN HELP

The American Cancer Society Cancer Resource Network can help any time, day or night, with online information, cancer information specialists, Cancer Resource Centers, and Patient Navigators. Call 1-800-227-2345 for more information.

ACS Cancer Resource Center the American Cancer Society Cancer Resource Center at Willamette Valley Cancer Institute & Research Center (WVCI), our volunteers will have the knowledge to help navigate cancer patients through their cancer diagnosis. For more information, please call 541.431.9808.

Cancer Survivors Network Created by and for cancer survivors and their families, this online community is a welcoming, safe place for people to find hope and inspiration from others who have “been there.” Services include discussion boards, chat rooms, private and secure CSN e-mail, personal Web pages, and Expression Gallery, and more. You can find the Cancer Survivors Network online at cancer.org.

Believe Boutique offer free wigs, hats, scarves, turbans, prosthesis and bras to patients dealing with cancer treatment side effects. For more information or to schedule an appointment, call the Cancer Resource Center at 541.431.9808.

Look Good...Feel Better a free program that teaches people in active cancer treatment ways to help with the appearance-related side effects of treatment. For more information or to register, call the Cancer Resource Center at 541.431.9808.

Road to Recovery volunteer drivers use their own cars to drive cancer patients with no other means of transportation to their treatment appointments and back home again. For more information, please call the Cancer Resource Center at 541.431.9808.

Reach to Recovery volunteers who are breast cancer survivors themselves can meet with patients face to face or over the phone to give patient and family the support and information needed to cope with a breast cancer diagnosis. To connect with a Reach to Recovery volunteer, call the Cancer Resource Center at 541.431.9808.

Patient Lodging This program offers free or low cost lodging to out-of-town cancer patients while they are being treated for cancer. Participating hotels are subject to change. For more and updated information contact Lynda Godell or Gretchen Matsuoka at 541.683.5001.

We save lives and create more birthdays
by helping you stay well, helping you get well, by finding cures, and by fighting back.
