Honorable Mention

Muhammad Ali was one of the most significant and celebrated sports figures of the 20th century, and he will be dearly missed.

ALI AT THE OLYMPICS

- As Cassius Clay, won the light heavy-weight gold medal at the 1960 Summer Games in Rome

- Went 4-0 in his matches, defeating Yvon Beaus of Belgium in the second round, Gennadiy Shatkov of the Soviet Union in the quarterfinal, Australia's Anthony Madigan in the semifinal, and Poland's Zbigniew Pietrzykowski in the final; all were 5-0 decisions save the stoppage in the second round of his bout with Beaus

- Lit the Olympic cauldron in the Opening Ceremony of the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta

- Made a special appearance in the Opening Ceremony of the 2012 Summer Games in London
