

SPEEDWAY

The IMCA Modified main event was full of cautions. A total of eight stoppages occurred which resulted in several restarts. Cottage Grove's Tyler Smith showed the way early before getting passed on the fifth lap by Steven Sturdevant. Sturdevant, out of Springfield, possessed the top place position for a handful of laps. Colten Winebarger would get around him shortly after a lap-six restart. The Corbett native, Winebarger, led the remainder of the distance to win his fourth feature of the season at CGS.

Tyler Smith was able to win the battle for second at the line, with fellow Cottage Grove driver Kinzer Cox behind him. The rest of the top five consisted of Steven Sturdevant in fourth and Curtis Towns of Cottage Grove.

In the Late Models, it was all about Preston Luckman. The young man from Coos Bay easily seized the initiative right from the get-go. Luckman held his lead from start to finish to win his first Late Model event at Cottage Grove in only a couple of start in his father's car. Luckman performed a clean sweep of the evening's events.

Redmond's Ron Brewster placed second, while Rob Campos, from Scio, got third. Britton Donahoo, out of Salem, finished in fourth, followed by Nathan Augustine, also from Redmond.

Jorddon Braaten once again was the man to beat in the IMCA Sport Mods. In the main event, Springfield's Tharen Trissell led the first lap before getting passed on lap two by Randy Dunlap. Dunlap, from Cottage Grove and driving for Jimmy Owen, kept the position for quite some time before losing it on lap 14. The driver to make the pass was Central Point's Braaten. Braaten dominated the rest of the way to win his seventh feature at CGS this year.

Andrew Mathers, of Eugene, finished an impressive second, while Yreka, California's Jimmy Lipke was third. Winston driver Buddy McHargue crossed the wire in fourth and Mike Medel, of Medford, got fifth.

Last but not least were the Quality RV Hornets. Westfir's Josh Corley got to front on the opening lap. Corley checked out from the rest of the field to make his sixth appearance in victory lane this year. It was also Corley's second consecutive victory in the Hornets as well as a clean sweep.

Chris Pierce, of Cottage Grove, was second while Veneta's Brad Moffett finished third. K.C. Scott, from Springfield, ended the night in fourth while Harrisburg chauffeur James McClure was fifth.

Cottage Grove Speedway will be off next weekend due to the Western Oregon Exposition. The track returns to action on Friday, Aug. 26, and Saturday the Aug. 27. For more information be sure and stay tuned to www.cottagegrovespeedway.com.
