Yoncall High School

Yoncalla High School/Middle School has approximately 134 students in grades 7-12. Parents, students and teachers are pleased that students can receive Individual instruction because the average class size is fewer than 15 students. Outside of the core classes of English, Science, Math, and History, the district has specialists in Music, Physical education, Foreign Language, Broadcast Journalism and Special Education. Credit Recovery classes are offered through online programs called Odysseyware and Insight. The high school also has college credit opportunities in Math, Accounting, Microsoft Office products, Electronic Calculators, Careers, Desktop Publishing and FBLA. Extracurricular activities enrich the curriculum of the school by making available a variety of activities in which students may participate. Students have the opportunity to join the following clubs: FBLA, Leadership Club, National Honor Society and others. Yoncalla High School participates in the Skyline Conference as a Division 1A school.
