Trouble at home

The girls' soccer team struggled to find an answer against Philomath on Tuesday. The Lions lost 4-0 against the Warriors at their home-opener, and the team was handed its first loss of the season. The team struggled to get the balls to its star forward, Kiana Hemenway (shown to the right pushing the ball forward with a header) and the defense was unable to help the goalie. The Warriors were up 2-0 by halftime, and the Lions suffered a crushing defeat just a few days after handing their own dominant performance to Astoria in a 6-0 win.
