sive victories over teams such as Marshfield, Blanchet Catholic and Del Norte, a strong Northern-California program that holds a 9-1 record. Creswell will be a strong test for Cottage Grove, but Elmira should be a team the Lions can take care of. The Falcons are currently 1-5 and are ranked near the bottom of the OSAA rankings at 37.

However, it won't be an easy road to be at the top of the Sky-Em League. Four Sky-Em League teams are currently in the top 10, the most out of any league, making the upcoming season a very dangerous road for whoever sits atop the Sky-Em rankings. Sisters currently looms over Cottage Grove, ranked just behind the Lions at fourth. Sweet Home sits at a dangerous sixth-place ranking and even Sutherlin is ninth.

Cottage Grove, with nearly half of the roster being seniors, will have an opportunity to have a triumphant season should they prevail in the Sky-Em League.

pass to Woods. Though he didn't have any long receptions, Parent was Sentman's primary receiver with four receptions.

Now it's time for Cottage Grove to look toward what could possibly be their toughest opponent yet. Scappoose sits at 1-1 after losing to St. Helens on Friday. But this is a team that made a trip to the 4A state championship (losing to Cascade). The team went 10-2 last season, compared to Cottage Grove's 4-5. The Lions have all the momentum, but Roberts pointed out one flaw in their Madras rout.

"They didn't play with much emotion," Roberts said. Last year, Cottage Grove faced a similar problem until the team eventually found its energy and passion. This can be a difficult problem to correct because it's not something that coaches can necessarily tap into.

"They're the ones that are playing the game; I think they have to build up their own emotions and passion," Roberts said.

Cottage Grove has had the opportunity to play in two tune-up games. The question will be whether it has given the team a lot of momentum and confidence, or if it has left them inexperienced under pressure.
