

Celebration of Life notice

Holley Jo Gould, 61, of Cottage Grove passed away peacefully Sunday, Sept. 25, 2016. A Celebration of Life will be held Saturday, Oct. 1 at 4 p.m. at the Cottage Grove Elks Lodge. Arrangements under the care of Smith-Lund-Mills Funeral Chapel, Cottage Grove.

COMMUNITY BRIEFS

Homecoming Week

Homecoming week approaches soon for Cottage Grove High School. This year, participants will crown Freshman Court, Sophomore Court, Junior Court and Senior Royalty during half time of the football game on Friday, Sept. 30, which starts at 7 p.m. The cost is $5 for adults and $3 for seniors 55 and older. The annual Homecoming Parade will be held Friday, Sept. 30 at 2 p.m. beginning at the high school and ending with a pep rally at Sixth and Main. Come join us for all the fun festivities.

Garden Club focuses on fall

The Cottage Grove Garden club plans an expansive presentation about some of the most important fall tasks, including choosing a cover crop, for its Tuesday, Oct. 4 meeting. As always, the presentation is free and open to the public. The Garden Club meets at The First Presbyterian Church on the corners of Adams and Third Streets. The business meeting begins at 6 p.m. with refreshments following, and the presentations begin at 7 p.m.

912 Project

Larry Bottemiller will discuss his visits to Israel at the next meeting of the Cottage Grove 912 Project on Monday, Oct. 3 at 6:30 p.m. at Stacy's Covered Bridge Restaurant, 401 E. Main. The meeting is open to the public.

Celebrate our farmers

The Celebrate Our Farmers

event will offer family activities including a farmer's market, seed mask making and lawn games at Bohemia Park on Saturday, Oct. 1 from 1-5 p.m. Dinner and dancing will follow at the Bohemia Public Market across the street from 5-9 p.m. More information can be obtained by calling 541-942-2360 or visiting sustainablecottagegrove.org.

Beds for Freezing Nights seeks volunteers

"Beds for Freezing Nights" opens a shelter in one of two local churches when the temperature drops to 29° or below from Nov. 15 through March 31. Last season, BFN was open for 11 nights serving a total of 62 guests. One night there were 15 guests.

Two volunteers are needed to staff the shelter during each of the following shifts: 6-11 p.m., 10:50 p.m. to 4 a.m., 3:50 to 8 a.m. Responsibilities include setting up/taking down shelter supplies; checking guests in and out and supervising the shelter.

Volunteers are required to undergo a $10 background check and attend one of the upcoming training meetings: Thursday, Oct. 20 from 6-8 p.m. or Saturday, Oct. 22 from 9 a.m.-noon at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church, Parish Center, 1025 N. 19th Street, Cottage Grove. Those interested in volunteering or for more information, contact Christine Moats at 541-521-8816.

Stephanie Johnson at the Fiddle

Stephanie Johnson, an R+B/blues singer who was a featured vocalist on Season 5 of The Voice, will bring her four-piece band to headline the Axe and the Fiddle on Saturday, Oct. 8.

Schmale honored for service work on eve of relocation

Representatives from all the area's service clubs, including Rotary, Lions, Sunrise and Noon Kiwanis clubs, plus the Chamber of Commerce, Humane Society of Cottage Grove and Habitat for Humanity, came together Thursday, Sept. 22 to wish Linda Schmale a safe and pleasant journey to a new home in Arizona, where she will be joining her twin sons.

Schmale served as manager of Pioneer Title and later was affiliated with American Title, having signed up many hundreds of new homeowners through the escrow business.

She has held many positions in the community, including two terms as President of Rotary, twice as president of the Cottage Grove Chamber of Commerce, Soroptimist Board and Florence Chamber of Commerce. She served in many offices and on many committees with Oregon Escrow Council (OEC) and went back to Washington, DC to testify at Senate Hearings on issues directly affecting the settlement industry and Real Estate transactions in general.

Rotary's Don Williams called Schmale "a significant force in South Lane County, not only for her above business achievements but the hours of volunteer time."

Cottage Grove's Linda Schmale has volunteered with Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis and other organizations.

In the last two years, after her beloved husband of 38 years, Roger, passed, she has volunteered with many committees on Rotary and the Chamber. She also helped socialize and bottle-feed orphan kittens for the Humane Society.

IN MEMORIAM

Jimmie Southmayd
1949-2016

Jimmie (Jim) Newton Southmayd passed peacefully from this Earth to his heavenly home on Aug. 24, 2016 at the age of 67 in Olympia, Wash. The service for Southmayd will be held on Saturday, Oct. 1 at 11 a.m. at Riverside Community Church of God in Cottage Grove with potluck to follow, because God, family and food were three of Jim's favorite things.

LORANE COUNTRY NEWS

BY LIL THOMPSON
For the Sentinel

It's Homecoming Week at Crow Middle/High School, culminating on Friday with judging of the floats at 8:30 a.m. followed by several other events after fifth period.

The Booster Club will host a barbeque Friday evening with several other activities and hopefully a bonfire and a powder puff football game, ending in the parade and coronation of the king and queen. The high school dance begins at 10:30 p.m.

This Wednesday, Sept. 28, an open house is scheduled from 6-7:30 p.m. at Crow Middle/High School.

A delicious meal is on the menu this Saturday morning, Oct. 1, for the annual Hunter's Breakfast at the Rebekah Lodge from 6-10 a.m. A breakfast of eggs, pancakes, ham and beverage costs $7, and guests don't have to be hunters. Please keep saving Box Tops for Education and send them into the schools. Lorane Grange meets on Thursday, Oct. 6 at 7:30 p.m. Everyone enjoyed the taco dinner last Friday, so taco dinner will be served again on the next dinner and bingo evening, Saturday, Oct. 15.

Rural Art Center Movie Night returns to Lorane Grange on Saturday, Oct. 8. They will show the result of the summer film camp, "Tears of the Red Oni". It is based on a Japanese fairy tale. The main feature is "The Little Shop of Horrors". Soup dinner precedes the films.

For all who knew Joe Canada, a longtime Crow resident and Crow Granger, there will be a service on Sunday, Oct. 9 at Crow Grange at 2 p.m. He will be missed.

Just want to remind everyone about the Moving Vietnam War Memorial on Sept. 29 in Skinner's Butte Park. It is a very moving memorial, and if you have never seen it, it is worth your time.
