heading to Las Vegas. "Any contribution you can afford will be gladly appreciated," Hoover notes. "The skills learned at this competitive level for these gifted athletes cannot otherwise be learned at the local level," he added. Hoover said he was approached by coaches in Eugene and says the overall goal was to get young athletes from Oregon more exposure. Hoover said that the coaches selected the top five players from the area.

"There was no official tryout; if more kids wanted to go then we would probably have to host a tryout, but not many can go," he said. The team had its first practice on Monday night and will be working throughout the week to prepare for the tournament. Upon arrival, each team will be placed into a bracket system and put up against teams determined by an exclusive software program. The teams enter a double-elimination bracket with three teams.

The tournament will also provide a special Thanksgiving dinner for each team at the game fields.

sparked when Blake Sentman threw a short eight-yard pass to senior Zane Levings, shrinking the deficit to four points. The Lions were able to get the ball back but were forced to punt, which is when disaster struck. Cottage Grove's punt was blocked, and Astoria recovered the ball at the Lions' five-yard line. Astoria's Tyler Lyngstad ran the ball in from four yards out to once again make it a two-score game for the Lions. After the Fishermen touchdown, Sentman and his offense responded with a 25-yard touchdown pass to Kory Parent. A two point conversion made it a three-point game, 21-18. After the touchdown, Head Coach Gary Roberts said that he got the feeling Astoria's team was beginning to get winded, and that his team still had a lot of fight left in them. The Lions were able to force Astoria to punt, but Cottage Grove was stopped once again on fourth down. But it still wasn't over. The Fishermen lost 14 yards on two plays and then received a personal foul due to a player removing his helmet before reaching the sideline. This forced Astoria to punt, and the Lions got the ball back at their own 35 with 2:45 left in the game. Hayden Glenn caught a nine-yard pass from Sentman and began an offensive roll. Levings later managed an 18-yard run to the Fishermen 37. Cottage Grove stalled for a bit and was put in a tough fourth-down situation. Sentman hit Jacob Woods, who dragged his feet for a first-down reception. The very next play, Sentman threw it back to Woods on a short pass toward the sideline, but then he spun away from a tackle and dodged one more to run cleanly into the endzone, giving the Lions a four-point lead, their first of the night. But it was going to be up to the Cottage Grove defense to close the game, as Astoria was getting the ball back with 1:16 remaining and two timeouts. Fishermen quarterback Fridtjof Fremstad converted twice on fourth-down plays and completed a 14-yard pass to put the ball at the Lions' 16-yard line with one second left. Fremstad dodged two Lion defenders and had what seemed like an open field, but the senior quarterback's helmet came off, and by rule, the play was called dead and the game was over. Despite the lucky play, this game proved that Cottage Grove can overcome high-pressure situations and make clutch plays when it really counts. The victory sends the team to a semifinal match against Cascade. The game takes place at Hillsboro Stadium on Nov. 19 at 5:30 p.m.
