

IN MEMORIAM

James Edward Cavanaugh 1931-2016

James Edward Cavanaugh, 85, of Cottage Grove passed away Oct. 25, 2016 from cancer.

Jim was born June 7, 1931 in Cincinnati, Ohio to Louis and Carrie (Nesse) Cavanaugh.

He graduated from Hoover High School in Glendale, Calif. After high school, he served briefly in the Army as a Private First Class. Jim began his career at Gladden Products building Mustang motorcycles; he then moved on to Nethercut Industries building the Trail Blazer motorcycle. From motorcycles Jim moved on to the FRP industry (Fiberglass Reinforced Plastics), manufacturing spray equipment for this industry and eventually starting his own company, Poly-Craft Systems. In 1993 Jim moved Poly-Craft from Burbank, Calif. to Cottage Grove. Jim held several patents in mechanical engineering for the fiberglass industry, before retiring in 2000.

Jim married Barbara (Pugmire) on Nov. 22, 1952 in Burbank, Calif. Together they had four children, 11 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandson. They were married 63 years.

Jim loved to make clocks, restore antique cars, trucks and Mustang motorcycles. Jim won many awards for the restoration of his red 1948 Ford Pickup. In his spare time he would write many articles for motorcycle magazines and was a guest contributor for Mustang Motorcycle Club of America, where he would troubleshoot a problem or tell a story from the "good ole days". Many people sought him out for advice or help, his true passion was in helping others. Jim taught his children and grandchildren all about cars, the importance of hard work, integrity, and honesty. His knack to fix or make things will be missed along with his sense of humor.

Jim is survived by his wife Barbara of Cottage Grove, a daughter Kathryn of Bryan, Ohio, a son David and wife Sandi of Santa Rosa, Calif., a son Gary and wife Debbie of Bakersfield, Calif., a daughter Carrie and husband Jon Campbell of Cottage Grove, 11 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Friday, Nov. 25, 2016 at Smith-Lund-Mills Funeral Chapel, 123 S 7th Street, Cottage Grove.

Eileen Carter McLearn 1925-2016

Eileen Carter McLearn, 91, of Cottage Grove died Nov. 4, 2016 from Alzheimer's.

She was born March 16, 1925 in Scotia, Calif. to William and Elizabeth (Douglas) Carter.

In 1942, she graduated from Eureka (California) High School.

On May 20, 1943, she and Merlin L. McLearn were married in San Francisco, Calif.

Eileen worked 36 years with South Bay Elementary as secretary/assistant to the principal/superintendent.

She enjoyed reading, laughing, cooking, making pies, and visiting with all of her children and grandchildren as often as possible.

Survivors include two daughters, Merleen McLearn-McIntyre (Michael) of Cottage Grove and Elizabeth Dale Xavier (Rich) of Los Gatos, Calif., two sons, Dennis Michael McLearn (Pam) of Davis, Calif. and William Carter McLearn (Danne) of Cottage Grove, 10 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband on June 4, 1994 and by a grandson, Bill McLearn Jr., in 2013.

No service is planned. Arrangements under the care of Smith-Lund-Mills Funeral Chapel, Cottage Grove.
