not having bad or mean people that hate on me. I'm thankful for having a great teacher trough out my life because they are nice and supporting Qavah-Tillilie Age 10

I am thankful for my parents because I would have never been born. I'm also thankful for my parents because they love me and I love them. I'm thankful for my education because some kids have to work instead of going to school in Guatemala. I'm thankful for everything that I have because I know kids don't have what I do. I am thankful for my life and everything that my mom gives me. I am thankful for my family and what my mom does for us. I'm basically thankful for everything. I'm thankful for you reading what I'm thankful for.
Emely Vanessa Agustin Avila (or EVAA) Age 10

I am thankful for my house, toys and the food that I get to eat every day. I am very lucky for the roof over my head. I am thankful for my mom and my 2dad's Sammy and James. Also my sister and my brothers. I love that I get to have a family, clothes, shoes and clean water that I get to have. I am very lucky for a school that teaches me and for the greatest teacher ever. I care so much about the Privellages that I have. I know that I am very lucky to have what I do. Even though other People don't have what I do I still try to help.
Emmalea Cooley Age 10
I am thankful for I am thankful for getting so much food: like mash potato-Turkey and gravy. My dad gets the turkey all the time. Because he always brings a gun in the wild. I am also thankful for my mom. She gets my sisters away from me. Also my brother which lives in Springfield. He lets me play his xbox. Even I have an xbox one.
Hunter Crum Age 10

I am thankful for my mom and dad because they do so much for me and my sisters. Like how my dad gets fire wood so we can make fires when it is could, and mom makes Lunches and cleans the house. I do not know what I would do if I did not have them. I am also thankful for my food and the meals my family and I get. I am thankful for those's as well as a roof over my head and a nice big house. I am thankful for my family and I's dog Dixie who is a standard poodle. Dixie is a very very good dog and, she doe's not shed. As well as all these thing's I am also thankful for my sisters Emmy and Cally even though I don't always get along with them. Emmy is 9 and in 3rd grade, Cally is 5 and in preschool.

Payton Bickford Age 10

I am thankful for going to school because some kids can't. I'm also thankful to be well educated and get excellent grades in school. I'm thankful to have a big house and food on the table every day. I'm thankful to be able to play sports all year and active every day. I'm thankful to also be able to go to restrants some days and not just at home. I'm thankful to go on big trips like to Disney Land. The thing that I'm most thankful for is a warm home and a wonderful family.
Eli Williams Age 11

I am thankful for my home because I have something to live in. I am thankful for my food because it keeps me healthy and satisfied. I am thankful for my clothes because it keeps me warm. I am thankful for my family because they have always supported me. I am grateful to go to school and learn new things. I am thankful for my gas, light and whater because without it it would be hard to do natural things like, cooking, driving, and showering. I am thankful for my 7 month old baby brother. I am thankful for every thing I own and have.
Liliana Corrales Age 11

I am thankful for going to school, because education is important. You need to learn math, reading, science if you want a good job. I think you would only know that if you didn't go to school. Not only that, how would you learn the a, b, c's if it weren't for preschool. I wouldn't be writing this paper without school. That's because I wouldn't know how to write. How do you think you mad3e most of your friends? School. So, next time you think twice about saying school stinks. Also, your families are the ones who feed you, who pay for you, who bring you places. I am thankful for that. A lot of people don't have a family. When you need it most, they're there for you, always. Aren't you thankful for that? I am also thankful for water, and being able to find it where ever you go. People in other places have to go miles and miles just to get it. We have to walk two feet to the sink. I am thankful these things. They mean a lot to me.

Heidi Genthner Age 10

I am thankful for having a mom that loves me so much, same with my dad. Having a house is a privillage, some kids don't have a house. That why we help people that don't have a home. My family is the best I could ask for. I am thankful for my school because it is a privillage. I am thankful for my teacher Ms. Olsen because she help me cath up on work and not to be sad all the time.

I am thankful for my family because they take care of me and love me very much. I don't know what I would do without everyone of my family members. When I get hurt or sick they take care of me. My family means the world to me and if there was anything that I could do for them if They ever got hurt. I would let them stay at my house until they could go home. I am thankful that I have a family and that they care for me and when they need me to take care of them. I will be there for them.

Taylor Vaughn, Age 10

I am thankful for my wonderful family, awsome friends, and my education. I will tell you why; one, my family loves and supports me. Two my friends lift me up and make me smile. Finally three, my education is a big part in life, and you find yourself using it in every day life. Those are three of hundreds of things I am thankful for.
Zea Lopez, Age 11

I am thankful for my little brother and sister. I hope my aunt Sharla's dad is doing great in heaven. I am also thankful that none of my close friends or family have gone to go live in the world of afterlife - heaven. I pray every night hoping that people in my family get healed from any sickness that they have. That is five reassons I have to be thankful for at thanks giving day. The end Nevaeh Smith, Age 10
