LORANE COUNTRY NEWS

BY LIL THOMPSON
 For the Sentinel

There is no School today (Wednesday) in the Crow-Applegate-Lorane District for morning conferences. Then they're off for Thanksgiving weekend until Monday, Nov. 28, when classes resume.

The district thanks everyone for supporting local schools by passing the bond measure. They will proceed with the upgrades listed in the Priority 1 section of the Educational Facility Master Plan. Superintendent Aaron Brown will post the progress as they move forward. A full listing of the projects can be found on the website, www.cal.or.us.

Crow's annual basketball alumni games are scheduled for Friday and Saturday, Dec. 9 and 10. This year they hope to add women's alumni with at least four teams. No graduate is too young or too old, and if interested, participants are asked to let Marissa Cooper know, and she will put them in touch with the Booster Club.

Lorane Grange enjoyed fun and food at its taco dinner and bingo night. The next dinner and bingo will be in January.

The Rural Arts Council Movie Night is Saturday, Dec. 10 with family night starting at 6 p.m. Guests can enjoy a delightful pre-Christmas evening watching the original, "It's a Wonderful Life" with Jimmy Stewart and Donna Reed. A ukulele concert and holiday sing-along will add to the evening.

Everyone is invited to join the grangers for their annual Christmas Potluck Dinner and Open House on Sunday, Dec. 11 at 1:30 p.m. in Lorane Grange. Meat, potatoes, dressing, gravy, and beverages will be provided by grangers. Guests are asked to bring non-perishable food items for the Lorane Community Christmas Baskets to be delivered on Dec. 17. Boxes are up in all Lorane organizations.

Coming up at Crow-Applegate Church of the Nazarene will be a Food for Lane County Food Pantry with several dates for those needing food: Nov. 23 from 6-7:30 p.m.; Dec. 1 from 9 a.m.-noon and Dec. 15 from 9 a.m.-noon.

Parents Night Out is coming! Lorane Eta Theta Rho No. 94 are hosting Free Child care so parents can go shopping, have a fun night out or at home. They can bring their child/children to the Lorane Rebekah Hall from 4:30-10 p.m. for an exciting evening of games, crafts, and yes, even food. Contact Tara Wiggle at 541-935-5245 or Mary Houle at 541-942-9341 for more information.

As the weather is changing, the district would like to remind students of the hazards of wet, slippery roads plus foggy days and being mindful of the speed limit. Also everyone should drive carefully in the school parking lots as you enter and exit the school. Please watch your speed. Let's keep everyone safe! Wishing everyone a very Blessed and Happy Thanksgiving.
