

IN MEMORIAM

Theodore "Ted" Evans 1971 - 2016

Theodore "Ted" Evans, 45, died Nov. 19 of lung cancer.

Ted was born in Cottage Grove on Nov. 3, 1971. He graduated from Cottage Grove High School in 1989 and lived in Portland and Salem before eventually returning to Cottage Grove.

He married Tammi Ross in 2005. They have two daughters.

Ted worked at Alvord Taylor in Eugene as a Direct Support Professional. He was an outspoken advocate for people with developmental disabilities and believed that they deserve the dignity of living as independently as possible. He also owned a photography business that specialized in weddings and special events.

Ted was an avid reader, a quick study, a good shot, a devoted family man and a quick-witted debater. He liked cooking, photography, target and tactical shooting, driving, cigars and Scotch. His greatest joy was his daughters, who made every day worth fighting for.

He is survived by his wife, Tammi; daughters Brynlee and Haylee of Cottage Grove; mother Rebecca Evans of Cottage Grove; sisters Laurel Mavuwa of Happy Valley, Kate Erickson of West Linn, Verda Dew of Beaverton, and Helen Evans of Florence; and brothers Dan Bice of Sandy and Mike Evans of Lincoln City.

He was preceded in death by his father, Skip Evans of Cottage Grove.

Arrangements are with Andreason's Cremation & Burial Service in Springfield. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.
