

BASKETBALL

game, but the Lions hot streak continued throughout four quarters. Seven different players from the Lions' roster sunk at least one three-point shot. The attack from the outside maintained a comfortable lead for Cottage Grove.

The Lions came away 89-74, but the team could've easily broken 90 points had Donn Pollard not taken his foot off the gas and allowed more bench players to get playtime in.

Cottage Grove was 45 percent from the field (26 of 57) and an impressive 71 percent from the free throw line (15 of 21).

Sentman led the team again in scoring with 21 points. The senior was 60 percent from beyond the three-point line (three of five), but other players such as Tucker Porter (two of three), Jesse Ellingworth (three of four), Trenton Grover (three of four), Gipson (two of two), Alonzo (one of two) and TJ Bellamy (one of one) got on the board from beyond the three-point line. It was the most efficient three-point game the Lions have had all season, and it was the highest scoring game the Lions have had in over two years. Cottage Grove will travel to Stayton on Friday, Jan. 6.

DeJean Alonzo has been both an inside and outside threat for Lions' opponenets.
