ON THE COVER: Allie and Casey Carver (pictured here with their wedding party) met during bowling practice. Their first official date was a day on the Oregon coast and they dated for more than five years before tying the knot in the summer of 2016. The wedding was rustic and made even more memorable by the couple's son, Bentley. Just a few months old at the time of his parents' ceremony, Bentley served as a groomsman and was carried down the aisle by maid of honor, Gracie Stewart, and best man, Adam Rust. "He was holding a sign that said, 'Daddy, here comes Mommy' and I'll never forget that," Allie said.

On the beautiful Oregon coast, you choose the setting...
A small log church, a lighthouse, a stone shelter high above Cape Perpetua, a clearing in the woods, under an old growth Sitka spruce, aboard a cruiser on a bay or river, atop a rocky shoreline...
This is the place for a most special union. One that is yours and yours alone.
