The Lion's Pride Pageant is hoping to raise funds for the Miracle Children's Network and last week they put their best effort forward.

back pass from the tip-off while students failed to answer on their first two attempts. Both teams were on the board within the first two minutes with the staff slower on the return by minute five. By the second period, staff led students 29 to 17 with crowd-pleasing three-pointers from both sides.

Thursday saw the Lion Priders out again, this time invading El Tapatio's restaurant downtown. Residents who dined at the restaurant saw 20 percent of their bills donated to the cause.

The Lion's Pride Pageant will be held on Saturday, April 22 with students discovering what group member garnered the most funds for charity.
