a chance heading into the 7th. Jaydin Osban got an RBI single bringing home Sayles which gave the Lions some hope that they could rally, but with two outs and nobody on base, TJ Bellamy went down on a flyout giving Junction City the 3-5 game two win.

When asked if he believed it was difficult to bounce back after losing game one of a double header coach Geiszler responded "It shouldn't be, in my mind if you lose a game you should be more motivated to come out and do something a little different. We were a little better in the second game but not good enough."

The Lions (12-7) chances of repeating as Sky-Em champions got a lot tougher with the losses to Junction City. Cottage Grove now sits three games behind Sisters for first place. The Outlaws and the Lions will face off Tuesday, being the third matchup between the two schools this season. Sisters took the first game 10-0 and the Lions handed the Outlaws their only loss of 2017 in game two 1-0, both games taking place back on April 14th.

"I told them we have a lot to improve on and we are going to come into the next few days and work on those. We kind of have our backs against the wall, we came into this game 7-2 (in league play) sitting pretty good in second and now 7-4 sitting tied for third. Our backs are against the wall and we better come out and perform. These seniors have four games guaranteed left so we will see. Hopefully we can come out, do what we need to do, and at least play well. If we play well and lose that's okay, but it's frustrating when you don't play well and lose," Geiszler concluded.

The Lions missed out on an opportunity to secure their Sky-Em spot during a double-header against Junction City last week.
