ROB WARD
Rob loves the music he is playing! Rob invites you to tune in on Wednesdays, call-in your requests and enjoy some great Rock 'n Roll, Soul and Rhythm & Blues tunes. Rob was born in San Francisco in 1954 and grew up listening to KYA 1260 and KEWB 910, then later to KFRC 610. Rob formed his first garage band in 1966 as a 12- year-old, and continued with the same bandmates until early 1969. If it was played on top 40 radio, Rob heard it. His love for 50s and 60s music continues today and he loves keeping the music of the 50s and 60s alive, especially songs that should have been heard, but weren't. When he's not spinning records at KNND, Rob is the co-owner of Grill & Chill, "the little blue box that rocks on the corner of 9th and Whiteaker". He invites you to stop by and say hi.

Crockett, Mayden, and Scott Claim Sunday May 28th Victories at Cottage Grove

By Ben Deatherage
For the Cottage Grove Sentinel

Cottage Grove, Oregon- Sunday, May 28th would be the second and final leg of the 2017 Marvin Smith Memorial Grove Classic. There would be even more cars in the pit area with all three divisions being swollen with very good car counts. The 360 Sprints division was back for their second straight evening while the Mohawk Metals IMCA Modifieds and Quality RV Repair Hornets returned to the ¼-mile clay oval. Chris Schmelzle, of Colville, Washington, took advantage of his pole starting position to lead the field on the opening lap. Lap two would witness Roger Crockett make it past Schmelzle to seize first place. Crockett, of Medford and in the Roger Henderson machine, would then battle with Jason Solwold for quite some time. Solwold, from Burlington, Washington in the Mike Anderson and Monica Bata owned mount, would obtain the lead on lap four only to lose the position to Crockett on lap eleven. Solwold would mount a late race surge grabbing the lead yet again around lap 23 only for Crockett to make it back around him with just mere laps to go. Roger would hold on to the victory to finally win his first Marvin Smith Memorial Grove Classic. Jason Solwold would finish a close second with Clarksburg, California's Justyn Cox recording a third place finish. Eugene native Kyle Miller, driving for Kady Adelman, was fourth while Robbie Price, from Cobble Hill, British Columbia, wrapped up the top five finishers in fifth. Over 30 Mohawk Metals

IMCA Modifieds turned up for the Sunday program. Springfield's Jake Mayden would have a terrific performance in the main event. Mayden would keep all challengers in check and would hold on to win the race. Springfield driver K.C. Scott took care of business in the Quality RV Repair Hornets.

Scott would be put under considerable pressure late in the race. Dexter's Mike Swaim would make a pass with a few laps to go and crossed the line in first but unfortunately was disqualified during the post race inspection.

Sentman finalist for male athlete award

Blake Sentman has been named a finalist for Johnny Carpenter award, given annually to the Oregon 4A/3A/2A/1A male prep athlete of the year. Last year the award went to Will Shaw of Yoncalla while current Oregon quarterback Justin Herbert won the 5A-6A award. The award will be handed out at the Tiger Woods Center on the Nike campus in Beaverton, which will be hosted by Neil Everett of ESPN. "It's nice to see all the hard work and time I've put in pay off. It's an honor to go," Sentman said. He will play college basketball next year for Lewis-Clark State in Lewiston, Idaho.

Lane Community College has named a new interim track coach. Brian Schaudt was appointed to a one-year, interim position as track and field coach. Schaudt has been heavily involved in collegiate track and field in Eugene since his graduation as a student athlete from the University of Oregon in 2012. Since then he has spent time assisting UO head coach Robert Johnson. Look for more in the next edition of The Sentinel.
