

A busy weekend at the speedway

BY BEN DEATHERAGE
For The Sentinel

event. Near the halfway mark he would feel a lot of pressure from challengers only to keep them in check. Several cautions would occur which eliminated the factor of lapped traffic for quite some time.

Winebarger, out of Corbett, would however have a close call with the less than two laps to go. While navigating lapped traffic he would make contact with a slower car and nearly lost the lead before a caution came out for separate incident. Not too long afterwards he would get passed via the inside by Ethan Dotson.

Dotson, from Bakersfield, California, made the maneuver on lap 31 and took off after that. The young Central Valley native would build a sizeable interval and won his first career Wild West Modified Shootout feature in only three starts. He would become the seventeenth different driver to have won with the series while he is the fifth Californian to do so.

Collen Winebarger was a respectable second followed by Stayton's Grey Ferrando in third. Fourth and fifth place went to John Campos, from Keizer, and Springfield chauffeur Jake Mayden. The two consolation features were won by Great Falls, Montana's Joey Price and Brad Martin of Warren.

Five groups of heat races were ran twice earlier in the program. Winners of the first flight of heats included Danny Lauer, Matthew Drager, Grey Ferrando, Ethan Dotson, and Collen Winebarger. Heat winners in the second set were Randy Brown, Bricen James, Dustin Cady, Ethan Dotson, and Collen Winebarger.

The Wild West Modified Shootout returns to Cottage Grove Speedway on Monday, June 26th with a 6:00 PM start time. Tuesday, the 27th, is reserved for an off day before Wednesday, the 28th, sees the series head to Sunset Speedway Park in Banks. For more information follow the Wild West Modified Shootout on Face-
