Speedway Recap

Eric Fisher speeds through the Cottage Grove Speedway as he claims victory on the Summer Thunder Sprint Series.

By Cottage Grove Speedway

August 4th & 5th brought a new and exciting series to Cottage Grove Speedway for the first time ever. The Summer Thunder Sprint Series came to town to tear up the ¼ mile for 2 nights of racing. The Late Models were also in action for 2 nights. Street Stocks joined the field on Friday and Mohawk Metal IMCA Modifieds & Quality RV Hornets were added in on Saturday.

Friday night started off with a race against the clock in qualifying. Evan Britton was the quick timer in the Street Stocks with a 15.641, Late Model quick time was set by Collen Winebarger with a 13.159, and JJ Hickie set the fastest lap of qualifying for the Sprint Cars with a 10.887 putting all 3 quick timers starting 4th in their James Heating & Air Conditioning Heat Races.

The fastest 8 Sprint Cars redrew for the top 8 main event starting spots and Trevor Cook and Robbie Price would share the front row.

Andrew Langan and Ray Bloom started side by side for the feature but after a couple failed attempts at a side by side start they would have to start from the back and Evan Britton and Hunter Bloom would share the front row. Hunter Bloom took the early lead followed by Britton but it didn't take long for Langan to work back into the mix. Only 1 caution came out in the 20-lap feature and Britton would pick up another win over Langan, Hunter Bloom, Ray Bloom, and Garrett Barth.

Collen Winebarger and Rob Williams led the Late Model field to the green flag and Winebarger quickly took the top spot.

Trevor Cook led the first 2 laps of the night before Justyn Cox got by and took the top spot. Lap 13 brought out a red for fence repair after a tough break for Garen Linder. Crews filled turn 4 and made adjustments to cars while track crews made necessary repairs and after a short break in action Cox paced the field back to the green flag with Jason Solwold hot on his heels and 2 lapped cars separating Logan Forler from the top 2. Forler quickly got by the lapped traffic and the race was back on. Weaving in and out of lap traffic flawlessly Cox was able to hold the field off and pick up another win at Cottage Grove Speedway and his first with the Summer Thunder Series followed by Solwold, Forler, Chase Goetz and Kyle Miller.

After the final flag flew drivers got busy making necessary repairs and changes to their cars to get back out for another night of racing. Saturday was another hot one and the drivers were all ready to get back on the track for the final night of the weekend.

Quick times of the night went to KC Scott in 11.105. The dice roll was a 0 and so the winners of the James Heating & Air Conditioning Heat Races not only were winners but would also be main event pole sitters later in the evening for the Quality RV Hornets and the Late Models. Joe Maricle won the Quality RV Hornet heat and Jimmy Whisler got it done in the Late Models. Mohawk Metal Modified Heat 4 Feature Events were all that was left for the weekend and the Late Models hit the track first.

Quality RV Hornets were up next and with no invert it looked to be a battle between Joe Maricle and KC Scott but Mike Swaim was determined to make his presence known and quickly got by Scott and went to work on Maricle. Swaim took over the lead on lap 15 and kept it to the end winning over Scott, Maricle, Curtis Towns, and Dalton Bloom

Eric Fisher and Garen Linder pulled the top starting pills and shared the front row for the weekend's final Sprint Car race. Fisher shot out front with Linder in 2nd for a while before Henry Van Dam took the number 2 spot and set his sights on Fisher. Van Dam took the lead from Fisher on lap 13 and it looked like he would maintain it but Fisher wasn't done and with just a handful of laps left Fisher took the lead back followed by Friday night's winner Justyn Cox who came from a deep in the field 11th place starting spot to finish 2nd behind Fisher. Van Dam was 3rd, Linder 4th, and Jason Solwold rounded out the top 5.

Mohawk Metal IMCA Modifieds were the last feature of the night and it looked as tho Kevin Williamson would have his first clean sweep in the class as he started on the pole of the feature. Gus Cooper led the first 2 laps and on lap 3 Nick Trenchard took over the lead. Eric Ashley was running a strong 2nd until a lap 13 caution sent him to the rear of the field. The field bunched back up and went back to green where Grey Ferrando would take over 2nd place and he and Trenchard would give the crowd a great show as they battled for the win. Trenchard would get the checkers first over Ferrando, Mark Carrell, Curtis Towns, and Kreg Britton.

Cottage Grove Speedway is back for another 2 nights of racing with a Free Fast Friday and Loggers Cup on Saturday. For more information call 541-942-7561 or go to www.cottagegrovespeedway.com.
