

FAIR OR FOUL

Has this ever happened to you?

Getting Things Resolved

Tom decided to try one of the FAIR ways to resolve his conflict with his sister. Look at the FAIR card. Which one do you think he tried? Use the code to find out his resolution to the conflict.

Standards Link: Health: Students know the difference between positive and negative behaviors used in conflict situations.

YOU'RE THE REFEREE!

Read the above lists of fair and foul ways to handle a conflict. Then look at how the children in the comic strip below handle the conflict over the ball. Which foul is each child doing?

Standards Link: Health/Conflict Resolution: Students know conflicts can be resolved in a non-violent manner.

Boa Bickering

Alma and Sam had a conflict the first day they met. They both wanted to play with the class snake. They finally decided to take turns holding the snake. The snake was happy and so were they. They found out they had more in common than a love of snakes.

Look carefully at Alma and Sam. Circle seven ways they are alike.

Get Through the Bully Maze

Many, many children are bullied everyday. These children can feel lost in a maze made up of bad feelings – sad, stressed, embarrassed, nervous, depressed, helpless. These feelings can make it hard to do well in school and to make friends. Experts say that there is something that can help a child who has been bullied. To find out what that is, complete the maze. The letters along the correct path of the maze spell the answer!

Kid Scoop VOCABULARY BUILDERS

This week's word: RESOLUTION

A resolution is a solution or an end to a disagreement or argument.

Taking turns holding the boa constrictor was a resolution to the students' problem.

Try to use the word resolution in a sentence today when talking with your friends and family.

FROM THE LESSON LIBRARY

Common Ground

Finding ways that groups of people are the same often helps them to find a resolution to their conflicts. Find an example of a conflict in the newspaper. Make a list of the ways the people on both sides of the conflict are the same. How could these similarities lead to a resolution?

Standards Link: Health/Conflict Resolution: Students know how negotiation and collaboration can be used to resolve conflicts.

Where do children learn their ABCs?

ANSWER: In L-M-N-ary school!
