

Missing woman located

The Douglas County Sheriff's Office reported that missing 39 year-old Cindy Lynn Warren of Yoncalla, Oregon has been found. As of October 5, she was reported as on her way home with no further explanation on her disappearance.

Warren was reported as missing by members of her family on October 4. Warren was supposed to have met up with a male named "Mike" from Springfield, Oregon at a park in Sutherlin on October 3.

Warren's family reported they last heard from her by text message twice on October 3 - once at 2 p.m. and once at 9 p.m. Both messages indicated she was on her way home.

Warren was described as a white female adult. She is 5'7" and weighs approximately 170 lbs. She has brown eyes and red/brown hair. There are no known significant scars, marks or tattoos. She is reported to have no known medical conditions.

She was associated with a 2003 Silver 4-door Oldsmobile Alero with Oregon license plate 164GPH.

Car fire reported

CGPD , bystanders save man's life

South Lane County Fire and Rescue (SLFR) responded to a car fire on Gateway Blvd. on Tuesday, October 3.

According to SLFR Division Chief Joe Raade, Cottage Grove Police and bystanders at the scene pulled a male passenger from the car, described as a Chevy Tahoe.

"This heroic act undoubtedly saved the life of the occupant, who was later transported to River Bend Hospital with non-life threatening injuries," a press release read.

According to authorities, the incident began in the drive-thru of Jack in the Box on Gateway on the morning of October 3. An unidentified 72-year-old man apparently suffered a medical emergency while behind the wheel, lost control of the vehicle and ran into a power pole and box, damaging the infrastructure. The vehicle caught fire and according to SLFR and Cottage Grove Police, authorities on the scene as well as bystanders pulled the man from the vehicle to safety.
