Garrett Bridgens, Misty Moore, Heidi Brown, Kristin Ammerman and Picture Book Summit representative, Krista Parent pose with a $3,328.38 check. Picture Book Summit, a yearly online writing conference, donated $3,328.38 to Harrison Elementary School on November 17th, 2017. This donation will be used supplement the library, adding new books to the shelves at the new Harrison Elementary School next fall. Since the inaugural 2015 Picture Book Summit, almost $20,000 has been donated towards child-centric, literacy based efforts.

Picture Book Summit worked closely with Garrett Bridgens in the South Lane Schools District office to be able to bring the donation to our community. Several Cottage Grove High School students helped created an "about Harrison" video for the Picture Book Summit, bolstering their resumes. Many Harrison Elementary School students participated as actors in the video, and the principal, Heidi Brown, and the librarian, Misty Moore, both assisted to bring this donation to fruition. The new Harrison Library will receive a needed financial boost to replace worn and outdated books as well as support other literary needs.
