

NEW HOLIDAY MOVIE

>> One of many new holiday movies featured in the channel's annual "Countdown to Christmas" event, this drama stars Ashley Williams and Teddy Sears ("The Flash") as two people whose yuletide plans are altered by the man's daughter (Jaeda Lily Miller) – who makes a wish on a snow globe that keeps all of them in the veterinarian's (Williams) Vermont town for Christmas. Holly Robinson Peete also stars.

CHRISTMAS IN EVERGREEN
SATURDAY, DEC. 2 HALLMARK

MY CHRISTMAS PRINCE
SUNDAY, DEC. 3 LIFETIME

>> Yes, it's Christmas! And he's a prince! But the film's heroine – played by Alexis Knapp, who also returns to theater screens in "Pitch Perfect 3" this holiday season – doesn't know her European boyfriend (Callum Alexander) is a member of royalty until they go to her Wyoming hometown for the yuletide. She then has to decide whether to give up her teaching career to stay with him as he ascends to the throne.

THE GREAT CHRISTMAS LIGHT FIGHT MONDAY, DEC. 4 ABC

>> Just watch those electric bills go up again: It's time for another battle between families trying to make their houses the most distinctive in the land – thanks to the elaborate decorations they lavish upon their respective residences – as the fifth season of this limited series starts. Carter Oosterhouse and Taniya Nayak are back as judges, with the winning family in each hour-long segment receiving $50,000.
