

New This Season

NEW YEAR'S EVE LIVE WITH ANDERSON COOPER AND ANDY COHEN

BOB'S BURGERS

Her voice has been missing from "The Voice" lately, but music superstar and three-time Grammy Award winner Stefani remains very much in business with NBC, as proven by her headlining of this new offering that's sure to integrate many favorite songs of the season – getting Stefani's distinctive twists – as well as some of her hits. Guests will join her in holiday-themed skits, too.

GWEN STEFANI HOLIDAY SPECIAL

TUESDAY, DEC. 12 NBC

SUNDAY, DEC. 10 FOX >> A new holiday edition of the animated, Emmy-winning comedy holds to its tradition of seasonal episodes – but this one also marks a first for the show by running for a full hour. "Girls" alum Adam Driver, who's now a member of the "Star Wars" movie family, is among the guest voices in a highly musical tale that finds Bob (voice of H. Jon Benjamin) and his family again marking Christmas in their own unique way.

SUNDAY, DEC. 31 CNN >> It's the start of another era for the cable news network's annual celebration of the beginning of a new year, as CNN staple Cooper gets a new co-host in his longtime friend Cohen, of Bravo's "Watch What Happens Live" (and Fox's "Love Connection" revival, which will return). Of course, they'll be stationed in New York's Times Square for to observe the descent of the illuminated globe, with various guests stopping by.

Don't be a mean one

Since the first airing of "Dr. Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas" on CBS in 1966, this adaptation of the Dr. Seuss children's book has evolved into an annual holiday viewing tradition. Legendary animator Chuck Jones directed this story about a green-skinned grouch who sets out to spoil Christmas for the citizens of Whoville. Boris Karloff provides narration, with additional voices by Thurl Ravenscroft and June Foray.
