

★ The Cottage Grove police officers rushed to help Santa. “Oh, what have I done?” Santa said. “I crashed on my very first stop! If I don’t get help soon, children all over the world are going to wake up disappointed.” He looked around at the wreckage — the scattered toys, the limping reindeer — and lowered his head.

