

THE CASTLE ON THE HILL CELEBRATES A DAY OF LOVE

When is a museum not just a museum? When it's a place to not just learn, but also create wonderful memories. All museums have this potential to impact lives, including the Shelton McMurphey Johnson House (SMJ) in Eugene. If you haven't been to the grand Victorian on the south side of Skinner's Butte recently, you are invited to check out their upcoming events and make some memories of your own.

BGEPhotography. Reservations are required as space is limited. Call 541-484-0808 to reserve your spot for this romantic event.

Also on Valentine's Day, SMJ is offering a special package for engaged couples looking for a small intimate wedding. If you want a simple, yet romantic ceremony that you don't have to plan, this is for you! For only $150, an engaged couple with a marriage license and two witnesses will be invited to exchange their vows at SMJ by appointment on Feb.14 only. This will include an ordained minister, wine, wedding (cup)cakes, a commemorative certificate and a wedding photo by a professional photographer.

To learn more about these events, or to plan your own event at SMJ House, call 541-484-0808 or visit smjhouse.org to learn more about Eugene's little piece of history.

On Feb. 14, Eugene's only Victorian House Museum is giving couples a chance to renew their vows in the Museum's parlor, the very room that Alberta Shelton married Robert McMurphey in 1893. At 2 p.m., couples can celebrate their love with others in a group Vow Renew Ceremony. Each couple will be given wine, wedding (cup)cakes, a commemorative certificate and a digital photo by
