Cottage Bowl earns recognition

Natalie Cardoza Clark and her father Butch Cardoza of Cottage Grove, Oregon have been selected to receive a National Recognition Award by the United States Bowling Congress Board of Directors.

The 12-lane, Cottage Bowl, was opened by the father and daughter in 2009 to provide a fun experience for bowlers of all skill levels. The center has served as host for the Oregon State USBC Senior Mixed, Senior Qualifier and State 600 tournaments, and for several events for Emerald Valley USBC. The duo was named 2017 Proprietor of the Year at the Oregon State USBC jamboree last July.

Natalie has served on the Emerald Valley USBC board since its merger in 2006 and will become the association's president starting with the 2018-2019 season. She has served as Tournament Committee Chairman and as Tournament Director.

Cottage Bowl has provided Emerald Valley USBC free use of its center for learn-to-bowl clinics. Butch and a fellow bowler worked to develop a training class that included videos and personal instruction for bowlers.

"This award is symbolic of the support we receive from our bowlers and friends" Natalie said. "This extraordinary honor would not be possible without them." Natalie's mother, Anita, has been a long-time employee of Sanipac—but will retire at the end of the month to devote more time to the bowling alley.

The National Recognition Awards will be presented during the 2018 USBC Convention and Annual Meeting, April 23-26, at the Grand Sierra Resort in Reno, Nevada.
