Local Programming On SLTV

One of the goals of South Lane Television is to provide as much local programming as we are able to.

Although SLTV is not in the position to create programming, we have partnered with others to bring entertaining and informative local programming to the Cottage Grove area via two sources: CGTV, a non-profit station from Springfield who primarily run religious programming on Channel 38.3 and SLCB, a TV station run by the students of Cottage Grove High School on Channel 14.4 (temporarily running on 14.3).

CGTV is broadcast every weekday evening from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. CGTV airs a variety of features and travelogues. The shows are generally produced by Dan Holt, along with several other local film makers. For example, tonight (Wed. 3/14/18), CGTV will be airing Part 1 of "Ghost Towns of Idaho and Montana produced by Dan Holt at 7:00 p.m. followed by Mt. Rainier Railroad & Civil War Reenactment produced by Don Williams, at 7:30 p.m. Tomorrow and Friday evenings "Ghost Towns of Idaho and Montana" will continue at 7:00 p.m. on Channel 38.3

SLCB produces a number of programs from Cottage Grove High School as a part of the Media class. It is fun to watch these creative student films and documentaries. The students have worked with Rick Dancer and a number of Rick's shows also periodically appear on Channel 14.4. In order to fill out a broadcast day, the students split their programming into day-parts, and share their locally produced segments (airing at various times throughout the day) with network shows such as The Classic Arts Showcase and the NASA Channel which runs overnight. SLCB's program schedule is shown in the SLCB program guide located next to the SLTV Channel Guide above.

South Lane Television hopes you'll sample these local programs!

Happy viewing!
