

Souper serves a good time

The annual 'Souper' fundraiser was held last week with the tradition of community members offering their best soup for ticket holders as a way to raise money for Community Sharing; a food pantry in town that provides food as well as basic products for low-income and homeless individuals.

The event has traditionally pulled a large crowd and this year's 13 different soup options had people piling into Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church. Photos by Greg Lee.
