Mavis Irene Daggett 1923-2018

Our mother, Mavis Irene Daggett, a resident of Cottage Grove, passed away surrounded by many in her family on June 2nd, 2018 at 95 years old. She was born in Herrin, Ill and was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 60 years, George Edward Daggett. The three of us kids (listed below), along with the 11 grandchildren and 21 great grandchildren were honored to be a member of her family. She served almost 60 years as a pastor's wife in California and Oregon (including Cottage Grove). She had fond memories of Cottage Grove and moved back here in 2004 after George passed away. She spent her last 4 years at Middlefield Oaks Assisted Living in CG.

Mom loved Jesus and had a very personal relationship with Him. Knowing the almighty God, serving Him was her life's goal. She taught us about loving others, forgiveness and servanthood through her Godly example. Mom certainly was not exempt from adversity in this life, but her legacy was how she responded to it. She taught us to draw closer to God rather than turn away from God.

We, and all her family, would like to thank many of the staff at Middlefield Oaks, Cottage Grove Hospital and Sacred Heart Hospice for the excellent care - and going the extra mile for her during the last season of her life.

We all rejoice that she has reached her heavenly home.
We love you mom and will miss you dearly,
Your kids - Duane, Judy and Lloyd
