

FINLEY from B1

weekends for games. The only coaching job on his horizon is the possibility of coaching his five-year-old daughter's soccer team. While this chapter of Finley's time in Cottage Grove has come to a close, he notes that there is still hope that one day he will be back.

High School is a school that I would love to someday have my kids go to high school at. Working in that atmosphere and seeing how the kids interact with each other and interact with the staff, I hope one day that things work out and we do move back and I can send my kids to that high school because it is a cool place," he said.
