

FOOTBALL from B1

Graves led the team in rushing with 77 yards and a touchdown that came via a 14-yard run on the first drive of the game. Passing wise, Graves finished 12-for-18 with a pair of touchdowns which were both to Giffen and an interception. Giffen finished with four receptions for 74 yards. Outside of Giffen, it was wide receiver by committee as Dunn, Logan Nelson and Jaden Doolittle all finished with a pair of receptions. "First ball game against a pretty good team and we did some things well and we did some things not so well," said head coach Gary Roberts. "It's tough when you're playing a big, physical team like that. That's not our forte and we're still kind of learning what it takes to be varsity players and it's going to take us some time to get there but we're going to continue to keep battling and continue to work hard." The battle will continue this Friday as Cottage Grove makes the journey to central Oregon where they will face Crook County. In their season opener, the Cowboys defeated Ridgeway 47-25.
