ANNIVERSARY

SMITH—Don and Darlene Smith will celebrate 62 years of marriage on Saturday, Dec. 8.

The couple has lived in Cottage Grove their entire lives. Don was a logger before owning his own businesses, including a barber shop in Creswell he eventually sold to his daughter, who still runs Whistle Stop Barber today.

Darlene was a homemaker before returning to work at a local bank and eventually graduating from beauty school at age 59, working with her daughter at Whistle Stop Barber.

She has since retired.

Christmas tree permits for Umpqua Forest available

Christmas tree permits are on sale until Dec. 21 at all Umpqua National Forest offices.

Permits are available at Umpqua National Forest offices in Cottage Grove, Roseburg, Glide, Tiller and Toketee between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The permits are for personal use only and cost $5 per tree. There's a limit of five tree permits per household. Permits may be used only on those lands open to Christmas tree harvesting on the Umpqua National Forest. Maps identifying these areas will be provided at the time of permit purchase.

As part of the ongoing national initiative Every Kid in a Park, fourth graders who get their free pass to access thousands of fee sites across the country may also bring that pass into their local Forest Service office and receive one Christmas tree permit, free of charge.

To get the fourth graders in your life their free Every Kid in a Park pass, visit www.everykidinapark.gov.

Note that the fourth grade pass holder must be present, with his or her pass, to receive the free permit. Forest visitors are advised to be prepared for adverse weather and winter road conditions when heading out to the woods. Safety measures include packing warm clothing, a winter survival kit containing traction devices, a shovel, saw or ax, flares, flashlight, food and water, and matches in your vehicle. Always travel with a full tank of gas. Watch for log trucks on forest roads. Be sure to tell someone where you are going before you leave and your expected return time.

For more information, contact the Umpqua National Forest Supervisor's office at 541-957-3200.
