COTTAGE GROVE from B1

For Cottage Grove, offense continued to be hard to come by until Hidden Valley pulled their starters in the final minutes of the game. Ema Gardner led the team with nine points and Matty Ladd had seven.

"We've got to be able to take care of the basketball. So our fundamental skills, the basics: dribbling, passing, catching, shooting the basketball. If you can't do those things, you can't do the bigger things," said Eastburn. "And when you play a good team like Hidden Valley, who is fast and aggressive and physical, that really exposes those things. So I think the girls learned a really good lesson from that. They're pretty self-aware of what went wrong."

According to the latest rankings in the coaches poll that came out last Monday, Hidden Valley is now at number seven in 4A while Cottage Grove is at number eight.

On Saturday, the Lions travelled to North Valley where they defeated the Knights 40-36. Ladd led the team with 17 points while Gardner had nine on the night as the team improved to 3-1 on the season.

hiatus as they don't play again until a road trip to Banks on Dec. 18. Following that trip the Lions will be at the Seaside Holiday tournament starting Dec. 20, the Stayton Holiday Tournament starting Dec. 27 before playing in the Sky-Em/Skyline Crossover at Mazama starting Jan. 4. The team will round-out non-league play with Crook County on the road on Jan. 8 before beginning league play Jan. 11 at Siuslaw.

The next home game for the Lions is against top-ranked Marshfield - which defeated Hidden Valley 52-30 on Saturday - on Jan. 15. And until then, Eastburn is looking to get better every day.

"They're really good kids and they will come back and work hard. Now does that translate to they will get better? I don't know. Stay tuned," said Eastburn. "We will see improvement from each and every kid. Does that take us to the next level that we want to be? Who knows. Maybe it does, maybe it doesn't but at least we don't end the season saying we didn't do everything we can do. I know the girls will do that."
