points, seven steals, six assists and five rebounds.

"Kiernyn did a really good job. She did miss a lot of layups but she was doing a good job breaking the press and finding teammates," said Parker.

Margaret Byle added nine points while Alexis Halstead finished with eight points and eight rebounds.

Earlier in the week the Elks defeated McKenzie 59-43. Luzier finished with 25 points, including seven made threes. Carnes added in 15 points. On Friday, the Elks lost to Hosanna Christian 55-47. Sadie Olson had 11 points while Byle had 10.

"A lot of good experience. All the teams we saw here were good. And even Hosanna, we got to do a lot of in-game situations," said Parker. "We had it cut to three a couple times just because we were fouling. We had to foul, we were fouling, they were missing. We were getting rebounds, coming down running our plays and scoring. And we just couldn't quite get over the jump but it was right there. So that was good."

The Elks have now wrapped up their non-league schedule and will begin a five-game home stand starting with Yoncalla on Friday night. Heading into league, Parker's message to the team is a simple one.

"Just get better," he said. "Get better every game, right? Nothing special."

league season Friday at home against Yoncalla.

"It's still just about us. I mean, we've seen flashes from our players that yeah, we're a pretty decent basketball team just obviously, not enough.

So just try to put ourselves together and at this point, I'm not as concerned about opponents as I am about us," said Trout on the prospect on the start of league play. "And just making sure we keep getting better and we'll see where we end up. That's about all we can do."

Austin Luzier looks to pass earlier this season.
