

WARRIORS from B1

just kind of kept switching them back and forth on him. And I said, anytime he gives it up, stay with him chest-to-chest, deny the ball, don't let him have it back. The kid is extremely quick so he was still getting it back but they did a great job of fighting through and trying to get on him and just limiting his offensive ability. I mean, the kid is scoring 30 a game, nearly. He's a player. The kid is talented."

Limiting the Riddle offensive attack, North Douglas opened the game with a balanced scoring attack that saw six different players score two points in the first quarter. Outscoring the Irish 16-7 in the second quarter, the Warriors were able to slow down the game and focus on finding easy shots as they worked the clock. Switching to an offense with four North Douglas players all above the three point line, the team took Riddle out of their 2-3 defense and turned the aggressive Irish defense into open back door lay-ups.

"They were pressuring us so much that those backdoors were (open), it was all day. I said, 'We're shooting nothing but lay-ups. If it's not there, don't throw it. And if the guy is catching you, dribble it out and we'll set it back up,'" said Vancil.

Riddle cut their deficit to six points in the fourth quarter but the Warriors continued to come up with an answer. Continuously getting to the rim and drawing fouls at a Harden-esque rate in the fourth quarter was Parks who had 12 points in the quarter and was eight-of-eight from the line.

"This week I had been working free throws a lot more. We shot a lot of free throws this week because we knew our percentages have been real down," said Parks. "Just going to the line I felt like I had a lot of confidence because of all this week's shooting and then when I went to the line I knew, these two are going in." After finishing seven-of-21 from the line a week ago in a game against Elkton, the Warriors finished the night 11-of-13.

Tanner Parks and Jake Gerrard each had 10 points for North Douglas.

With the victory, the Warriors have now won five games in a row and are tied for first at the top of the league.

"Our goal is to make playoffs and win a league championship. We want to do that. And if we keep playing like this, we have a chance to be in every game we play," said Vancil.

The Warriors take on New Hope Christian next Friday before facing Umpqua Valley Christian, a team the Warriors gave up a late nine-point lead to earlier this season, at home on Saturday.
