Florence Elisabeth Olson Garrison 1910-2019

Born December 18th, 1910. Birth was at her grandmother's farm in Riverview, about 5 miles from Junction City, Oregon.

Florence lost her dad to a car wreck at age 3. Her grandfather passed from a heart attack when she was 12. Florence grew up on her grandmother's farm and was driving a flatbed Model A truck delivering produce to as far west as Triangle Lake from the Junction City farm, at age 16.

She met her husband when he hired in on the farm. Together they raised 2 children, a daughter Janice Zustiak, and a son Norman Garrison. She has 5 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren and several great-great-grandchildren.

Always a hard worker she helped her husband fall small timber the old fashioned way, using a 2 man hand falling saw. She also worked in a box factory with several other women in the late 40's to early 50's. Florence also served on the school board for a number of years.

She liked to trout fish in streams and caught many. She also liked to deer hunt and killed several nice bucks, using a .270 caliber rifle.

Florence liked to sit and watch the ocean waves. She and her husband bought a piece of property 5 miles from Yachats and put a 40' trailer on the property. They spent many weekends and vacations enjoying the property. After the age of 100 Florence said her body would no longer let her go to the coast.

Her great-grandmother was the first person to teach school in Lane County. Her great grandmother came to Oregon by covered wagon at the age of 14. Her parents were the Blachly's that the town is named after.

Her grandmother was known by many. The Eugene Hotel would bring many of their hotel guests out to the farm for banquet dinners. They were all served banquet style, with lots of farm fresh food on the table.

Eunice Chandler 1933-2019

Eunice Chandler, 85, of Yoncalla, Oregon passed on January 30, 2019. She was born on August 22, 1933, in Yoncalla to Clarence and Edna (Sehlin) Wilson. She married John Simons in 1952 and Jay Chandler on November 4, 1971. She graduated from Yoncalla High School in 1950 and later earned her Bachelor of Science from Umpqua Community College for Forestry in the 70's. She worked for the Forest Service for several years, was a short order cook and a homemaker. She enjoyed gardening, hiking, painting and drawing. Eunice was known as "Grandmother to the World", with a warm and loving heart. She is survived by daughters, Merri Simons, Neeta Simons, Emma Simons, and Carrie Blackman, all of Yoncalla; Billie Weight of Williston, ND; son, Edd Simons of Battlemountain, NV; 10 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren and 19 great-great grandchildren. Eunice was preceded in death by spouse, Jay Chandler and daughter, Abbie L. Morgan. Arrangements by Smith-Lund-Mills Funeral Chapel, Cottage Grove, OR.

Jeannette Dean Howard June 8, 1932 - January 25, 2019

Jeannette was born June 8, 1932 in Menard, Texas and was the 9th of 10 children. She married Lonnie Howard on June 3, 1950 in Bayard, New Mexico. Lonnie preceded her in death in 2007. They had three children, Paul Howard (wife Dorothy) of Cottage Grove, Janet Yearous (husband Paul) of Cottage Grove and Ray Howard (wife Marketa) of Prineville. They were also blessed with 6 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.

Nettie retired in 1995 from Klamath County School District where she worked as a bus driver and also in the school cafeteria. They moved to Cox Creek Road in Yoncalla where they lived until Lonnie's death. She moved into Magnolia Gardens shortly afterwards where she lived the last 9 years of her life. She very seldom missed a bingo game and spent her other free time reading and doing word search puzzles along with bible studies.

She was an avid crafter. She loved sewing, knitting and crochet as well as other numerous craft projects. She and Lonnie were very active in several black powder clubs. They spent much of their free time at black powder rendezvous camps competing in shoots. Nettie made all their costumes which were authentic dress for the time period. She was a very good shot as well, taking home many first place trophies.

A Visitation will be held from 7:00 - 9:00 PM on Friday, February 8, 2019 at Smith Lund Mills Funeral Chapel, 123 S. 7th St., Cottage Grove, OR 97424. A Graveside service will be held, February 9, 2019, at 11:00 AM at Yoncalla Applegate Cemetery, Yoncalla, OR. Arrangements in the care of Smith Lund Mills.
