DAMIEN SHERWOOD/COTTAGE GROVE SENTINEL

Katherine Wilson (center), author of the new book "Echoes from the Set," stopped by Cottage Grove for a book signing last Friday, May 24, at The Bookmine. Wilson's memoir reflects on 50 years in the movie business and experiences with big names in the industry, such as Jack Nicholson, Michael Douglas and Rob Reiner. The book chronicles work on some of Oregon's most famous movies, including "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," "Animal House" and "Stand By Me."

Community invited to stroll through Art Walk this Friday

Artwork like this by artist Missy Cox as well as music and entertainment will be a part of the next Art Walk in the Cottage Grove Historic District on Friday.

It's the perfect time to experience art inside and out during the next Cottage Grove Art Walk of the season.

The community is invited to stroll through historic downtown Cottage Grove and view the art created by area neighbors. Special performances will be taking place by DanceAbility at The Opal Center and by the South Lane Ballet at The All-American Square.

The Art Walk will be this Friday, May 31, from 6 to 8 p.m.

Some of the featured artists will include:

- Opal Center — DanceAbility performs
- The Crafty Mercantile — Missy Lynne, acrylic artist
- Five Flying Monkeys — Matthew Paul Clendenen, carved faces; Candy Bahnmaier, rustic touch by C&C
- Apple Pie Antiques — Sherree Rodriguez, watercolor artist
- Bookmine — Dan Libertheon, poet
- Axe & Fiddle — The Society of Artists, an eccentric collection of talented artists
- Seeds & Flint — Cindy Claire of A Wise Woman's Recycled Art featuring her mosaic art.
- Rural Organizing Project — The archived artwork of Kalapuya Books, Ambrose Collectibles, Main Street Galleria, The Brewstation, Delight, Imagine It Framed, Soleful Massage and Rural Organizing Project.

BMD Festival announces auditions for 2019 play

Bohemia City Players Director and Playwright Jennifer Mandeville-Schulz invites actors to audition for the festival's theme play, "Opal: Unpolished Gem," a historical play spotlighting one of Cottage Grove's most famous authors, Opal Whiteley.

Auditions will be Saturday, June 1, at noon at the Cottage Grove Community Center, 700 E Gibbs Ave.

Performances will be on the festival's Heritage Stage in Coiner Park, July 18-20.

The play is set in Cottage Grove at the turn of the 20th century.

Auditions will be for five children (ages 6-13) who will have multiple roles, five women and three men.

No prior acting experience required.

Rehearsals will be Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings, in addition to set and prop construction parties.

To promote the play, the cast is invited to participate in the Creswell 4th of July Parade and the BMD Grand Miners Parade on Saturday morning, July 20.

For additional information, or to schedule an alternate audition time, call or text 541-510-8894 or send email to jmandeville-schulz@yahoo.com.
