All smiles at Crow High School

COURTESY PHOTO

Seniors at Crow High School were all smiles following Saturday's graduation ceremony for the Class of 2019, which included a dozen honor students.

Budget from A1

adding: "I'm down trying to fret between $5,000 and $10,000 out of a $33 million budget. That's how fine-grain we go."

In the budget, approximately 82 percent of the money is spent on salaries for teachers and other district employees. This figure has the potential to rise based on the current negotiations with the union. That final approximately 18 percent of the budget is where the decisions come in for Sullivan, SLSD chief financial officer Phil Scrima, the school board and the seven private citizens that serve on the budget committee.

"Everybody works on a shoestring here, I've learned. Whether it is our transportation, our business finance, our maintenance — they all work on shoestrings," said Sullivan. "We work on shoestrings in terms of administrative

Working with what they have, the budget committee made decisions based on their priorities. One priority was meeting needs of a growing migrant and indigenous community, which meant adding an English language learning teacher. New science textbooks were also purchased at the middle school level.

"I tell the board all the time, you really have to invest in what you value," said Sullivan. "So, if you value instruction and learning for kids, that's where you invest."
