Holmes Wins ISCS opener with last lap pass; C. Winebarger scores second mod win of season

By Ben Deatherage
Cottage Grove Speedway

Despite only two classes on the card for the Friday, June 14th, bout at Cottage Grove Speedway, fans were treated to some incredible racing. The Interstate Sprint Car Series opened up their 2019 season after the first weekend was rained out a month ago. Also, in attendance were the Mohawk Metal IMCA Modifieds.

Harrisburg's Tyler Thompson was dominant for so much of the Interstate Sprint Car Series main event. Thompson held onto the race lead until lapped traffic held him up briefly. It was just enough for Jacksonville teenager Tanner Holmes to put himself in a position to win. Holmes made the key move in turns three and four to edge his way past Thompson on the final corner. It is the first career ISCS win for Tanner Holmes and crew.

Tyler Thompson was second while Kinzer Cox, of Cottage Grove, was third. Roseburg drivers Jake Waddell and Vern Scevers were fourth and fifth respectively. Earlier in the evening Junction City's Shane Forte won the consolation feature.

In the Mohawk Metal IMCA Modifieds the action would be just as intense in their main event. Springfield's Steve Sturdevant set the tone early until getting shuffled back to second on lap six by Curtis Towns, of Cottage Grove. Towns had a fast race car, but Collen Winebarger made a decisive move on a restart to eventually take over the top spot.

Winebarger, from Corbett, had to deal with a lot of restarts himself but he managed to execute them flawlessly. However, on the final green flag run Winebarger and Albany's Bricen James would duke it out on the final lap. Collen Winebarger held on by half a car length to score the win to become the first multi-feature victor in the class in 2019.

Bricen James was a respectable second over third finishing Jake Mayden, of Springfield. Keizer's John Campos placed fourth over Curtis Towns, in fifth. Redmond veteran Mark Carrell was triumphant in the B Main earlier in the program.

Miller, Mayden, Tanner, S. Winebarger and Maricle get 'Dad's Night' wins at Speedway

By Ben Deatherage
Cottage Grove Speedway

After a sensational Friday night of racing, Cottage Grove Speedway fans got another dose of terrific action on Saturday, June 15th. The historical quarter-mile clay oval hosted Dad's Night where all fathers got into the races for free. Five classes were on the card including the Wingless Sprint Series, Mohawk Metal IMCA Modifieds, Late Models, IMCA Sport Mods and Hornets.

The previous two events for the Wingless Sprint Series at CGS had unfortunately fell to rain but the proverbial third time was the charm to final get a race completed. Salem's Kyle Miller, in the Kady Adelman owned entry, took care of business to win his race of the season and continue his domination of Non-Wing Sprint racing at "The Grove". Jake Mayden, of Springfield, took care of business in the Mohawk Metal IMCA Modifieds to win his second race of the campaign.

Portland standout Joey Tanner made the journey south to Cottage Grove for the first time in 2019. Tanner would park his prestigious mount in the winner's circle and win in his first appearance adding another impressive win to his already incredible overall win count this season. After sweeping the weekend at Willamette Speedway not too long ago, Corbett teenager Skyler Winebarger bested the field in IMCA Sport Mods for his first CGS win. Finally, Eugene chauffeur Joe Maricle collected his second win in the Hornets.

Cottage Grove Speedway returns to racing on Saturday, June 22nd, for Grad Night. All class of 2019 graduates will get into the races for free. Four classes are on the bill including the Todd's Auto Body Sprints, IMCA Sport Mods, Street Stocks, and Hornets.

Pit Gates open at 1:00 p.m., Front Gates 5:00, and Racing is scheduled to get kicked off at 6:00. Tickets are $13 for Adults, Seniors/Juniors/Military $10, Youths (6-12) $5, and Children (5 & Under) are free. CGS offers a Family Pass (2 Adults and up to 4 Youths) for $35, VIP Skybox Seating is $25 each and Pit Passes are $30.
