it was back in the skies as Northway flew it to Oshkosh, Wisc. where it received an award for being rebuilt. Since then, Northway and his plane stay primarily in Oregon with trips to Crescent Lake, Odell Lake and John Day to visit family.

But on Saturday, it was about being on the runway and being able to talk to like-minded individuals about something he loves.

"I like to go to events like this because I can sit with friends and talk about planes, I can talk to people who are interested in it," said Northway. "I'm a member of the Oregon Aviation Historical Society and this is a fundraiser for them so I like to bring the plane out and keep people to come in."

While the planes were front and center, off to the side of the event was 81-year-old George Beebe sitting with his 1928 model 65 roadster Chrysler. In 1957, when Beebe was 19, he bought it for $80 and drove it off the lot.

Since then he has acquired other cars, including his award-winning 1932 Chrysler Sedan. But for Beebe, like so many other son the day, he enjoyed being able to share his car with those around him.

"Personally, every guy has his own thing, this is where I get warm and fuzzy," said Beebe gesturing to the all the cars and planes around him. "Sitting out in the sun, watching the people."

this time Winebarger managed to keep Chadwick, from Oakley, California, in check to win his third race of the week and his WWMS win at Cottage Grove. It is the sixth all-time win of Winebarger's career with the series bringing him tied with Alex Stanford for second on the all-time tour win list.

Chadwick was a close second while Mayden ended his evening in third. Albany's Brice James collected a fourth while posting a fifth-place result was Cooper.

Portland's Joey Tanner

(racing for car owner Jimmy Whisler), Justin Duty of Mulino (filling in for Brian Thompson) and Keizer pilot John Campos were the three B Main winners. As the night before heat races were divided into six groups. Winners in the first round were Cottage Grove's Curtis Towns, Jake Mayden, Pahrump, Nevada youngster Jake Pike, Joey Tanner, Dave Duste Jr. of Central Point, and Albany veteran Craig Hanson. In round two Aaron Sheelar of Springfield, Eugene's Jesse Williamson, Collen Winebarger, Carl Berendsen from Antioch, California, Hines driver Derick Young, and Brice James all collected victories.

The Wild West Modified Shootout will now trek north to Sunset Speedway Park, in Banks, on Wednesday, June 26th.

The Hornets were also back in action on Tuesday, June 25th, as the support class for the Wild West Modified Shootout. Thirteen drivers would make the trip for the rare weekday race.

Joe Maricle was quite fast in the first few laps of the main event. The Eugene driver took over the lead in the opening lap and retained the position until lap four. Hornet newcomer Mark Milligan made the move around Maricle, on lap five, to obtain the top spot. He held on for the rest of the distance to secure his first career win at Cottage Grove Speedway.

Brad Moffett, also of Eugene, was second, while Pleasant Hill's Adam Keegan posted a third. Joe Maricle ended the evening in fourth and Dexter driver Barry Cannon completed the top five, in fifth. Earlier in the night Dexter's Mike Swaim was fastest in time trials with heat race wins going to Maricle and Milligan while Moffett won the Dot's Trophy Shop Dash.
