Oregon Sports Hall of Fame announces 2019 Class of Inductees

The Oregon Sports Hall of Fame & Museum has announced its 2019 class of inductees. According to Mike Rose, induction ceremony chairman, the Hall of Fame will induct six new members to join over 390 prior inductees. The presentations will be made at the Multnomah Athletic Club, Tuesday, September 24.

This year's class includes Kenny Moore, U of O distance runner; Molly McConnell, boxing; Ray Bloom, OSU basketball;

Mark Radford, OSU basketball; Dr. Bob Gill, special contribution to sports; and the 1975 Portland Timbers team.

This year's event will mark the debut of Jordan Kent as master of ceremonies, following Bill Schone's retirement last year.

Each year the Oregon Sports Hall of Fame helps preserve Oregon's rich sports heritage through its recognition of outstanding Oregon athletes and special contributors to sport.

In addition, Oregon

Sports Hall of Fame college scholarships will be awarded to Oregon scholar-athletes, made possible by contributions from the MacTarnahan Family Trust. Six student-athletes will be awarded $3000 scholarships to be used for continuing their education at Oregon colleges and universities.

This year's student athletes are: Zach Folsom, Sheldon HS; Jack Folsom, Sheldon HS; Martin Heredia, Hermiston HS; Brinley O'Neill, North Medford HS; Veronica Alvarez Frias, Riverside HS Boardman; and Paige Baker, South Eugene HS.

The event will be held once again at the Multnomah Athletic Club, with a reception starting at 5:30 p.m., followed by dinner and program at 7 p.m. Veteran sportscaster Jordan Kent will emcee the ceremony.

For tickets please call the Hall of Fame at 503-227-7466, email info@oregonsportshall.org, or visit www.oregonsportshall.org for additional information and ticket orders.

The Oregon Sports Hall of Fame recognizes and honors Oregon's rich athletic history with our museum and annual induction and awards ceremony. The Hall of Fame's goal is to inspire participation in sport and foster awareness of the values and life-long rewards gained from this participation.

The Oregon Sports Hall of Fame & Museum now has a select number of exhibits on display at 4840 SW Western Avenue in Beaverton OR. Please come visit between 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. weekdays. There is no charge for admission.

Speedway from B1

went back to second on lap 12 as Thompson made it back to the coveted point.

Three cautions slowed the field down once Thompson had settled back in first place. Tyler stayed out in front on every restart and went on to win his first ISCS victory of 2019. It is the second time he has won with the series at Cottage Grove and is his fourth Limited Sprint win at "The Grove" this year. Tanner Holmes placed second while finishing in third was Kinzer Cox of Cottage Grove. Jake Wheeler from Central Point and racing for car owner Ron Osborne, ended his evening in fourth with Steven Snawder in fifth.

In IMCA Sport Mod action Steve Hopkins of Roseburg had a great early start. Hopkins was the wagon master of the caravan for the first four trips past the flag stand until losing the lead on lap five to Matt Sanders. Sanders, from the southwest coastal city of Brookings, was in the middle of a tough fight with two other cars in the last few laps. Sanders managed to best the rest of the field to collect his third win at the quarter-mile this season.

Matt Sanders' brother, Isaac, was a very close runner up while Jorddon Braaten, of Central Point, was third. Crossing the stripe in fourth would be Springfield's Shawn Hand with Jordan Henry, from Roseburg, completing the top five, in fifth.

David Schmidt took care of business in the Street Stock ranks. The Roseburg driver led every single lap and visited victory lane for the third time in the class in the current campaign. Daniel Ray made a rare appearance and the Springfield driver finished second for car owner Michael Hollingsworth. Third place went to Adam Applebee of Eugene, with rookie Daron Clark, from Macleay, rounding up the finishing order in fourth.

Lastly, in the Hornets, Eric Ashley was quite the dominant force. Mike Wheeler of Florence, led early but lost the position to Ashley on lap three. The Jasper driver, racing for car owner Randy Kuhl, performed a clean sweep after setting fast time and finding success in both the trophy dash and the heat race. It is the second feature win of the season for Ashley.

Eugene's Brad Moffett was second but unfortunately was disqualified during the post-race technical inspection. That gave the runner-up position to Barry Cannon of Dexter, with third being posted by Joel Hazen from Eugene. Mike Wheeler ended his night in fourth followed by Banks teenager Victoria Chandler.

Cottage Grove Speedway returns to racing this Friday, August 2, and Saturday, August 3 for the Summer Thunder Sprint Series. The Mohawk Metal IMCA Modifieds will be on the card for both nights. Additional classes racing on Saturday will be the Street Stocks and Hornets.
