Local Programming On South Lane TV

At South Lane Television, we are all about providing the most locally produced television available. While cable and satellite services provide many channels (many of which viewers rarely watch), our research shows that people most enjoy local programming such as their favorite local news channel, an OPB special program, or the variety of good programming not always found on cable or satellite. And did you know that not all the Eugene sub-channels are carried by some of these carriers, or if they are, they can be hard to find. By having a good quality antenna aimed to the SLTV towers southeast of town, you can be assured of having all the local sub-channels! And if a provider quits carrying a local channel, well, you'll be ready to continue watching your favorite programs via SLTV's free over the air system.

With the desire to provide as much local programming as possible, South Lane Television, partnered with the Cottage Grove High School Media Arts class many years ago to present high school news and features to the student body and the greater Cottage Grove community over ch 14.4 (South Lane Community Broadcasting).

SLTV also rebroadcasts KHWB, a religious station, from Springfield. KHWB provides a two-hour local Cottage Grove program window each weeknight, and local videos, coordinated by Dan Holt of Dorena, run weeknights from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. on ch 38.3. If you have never sampled this program block, we suggest you to check it out. As an example of locally produced programming on ch 38.3, the Dan Holt series Ghost Towns of Oregon begins Friday, October 18 at 7:00 p.m., and runs through the end of October each weeknight.

To round out our programming, SLTV has contracts with various program suppliers from around the country: Grit-TV, Laff-TV, Court TV, Antenna TV, the Heartland Network, Rev'n, Retro TV, Alaska Public Television, and locally, in addition to Oregon Public Broadcasting (Portland), we also carry Southern Oregon Public Broadcasting (Medford) which features the Create Network.

Happy viewing, Lloyd Williams, President
