On Wed., Nov. 6 Elkton Charter School held their 22nd annual Veterans Day Assembly, an afternoon filled with speeches and musical performances by elementary, middle and high school students. (Top left) Superintendent Andy Boe and Elkton School Board member Doug Byle hand out diplomas to Elkton veterans who missed their high school graduation due to military service. (Top right) Elementary schoolers wait to hand out their thank you messages to veterans. (Bottom left) EHS senior Sadie Olson delivers a speech titled "Voice of Democracy." (Bottom right) Dozens of veterans — from World War II to the Wars in Iraq and Afghanistan — gathered in the EHS gym to be honored.
